Vocation Corner Feast of Christ the King – C

A Vocation View: Who will work for Jesus, the King of Peace, Hope and Honour, the King of Love, Truth and Justice? Who is dedicated and enthusiastic enough to proclaim his Good News? It must be YOU! Prayer: That Christ the King, who has brought peace through the blood of His cross, will choose many men and women from our midst to preach redemption by the forgiveness of sins as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life, we pray to the Lord. Action: All the faithful of Christ of whatever rank or status are called to the fullness of the Christian life and to the perfection of charity. . . . In order that the faithful may reach this perfection, they must use their strength accordingly as they have received it, as a gift from Christ. . . . They must devote themselves with all their being to the glory of God and the service of their neighbor. In this way, the holiness of the People of God will grow into an abundant harvest of good. NOVEMBER 20, 2011 — SOLEMNITY OF OUR LORD JESUS, CHRIST THE KING

Today, we celebrate the feast of Christ the King. Yet, the first reading and the Responsorial Psalm present God as a shepherd who cares for His sheep, and in the Gospel, Jesus Himself speaks of the final judgment using the language of a shepherd. "He will separate them as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats," He says. The humble shepherd and the regal king do not have much in common. In fact, they are seemingly opposite personas, and yet, the scriptures tell us that in God, they are one and the same.

He is King of the world, and, at the very same time, He is a shepherd who cares for His flock. His kingship is unlike any other. He is the King enthroned in majesty who reigns above us all, but He is a King who so cares for us that, as a shepherd searches for one lost sheep, He calls each one of us to Himself, giving us a share in His life.

The first reading focuses on the Lord's caring nature.

"I will rescue them from every place where they were scattered when it was cloudy and dark. I myself will give them rest."

The Responsorial Psalm reiterates those same sentiments, praising the Lord for His incredible generosity. He gives us all we need and more, again, like a shepherd who cares for His sheep.

Meanwhile, in all three of the readings, there is an eschatological element. Each one, in varying degrees, speaks to us of the second coming and the final judgment that will take place when the Lord does return in glory.

The first reading concludes: "'As for you, my sheep,' says the Lord God, 'I will judge between one sheep and another, between rams and goats."
In his letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul tells us, "then comes the end, when He hands over the kingdom to His God and Father, when He has destroyed every sovereignty and every authority and power. For He must reign until He has put all His enemies under His feet."

"Prayer is the fastest thing on Earth... it reaches God before you even say it." Anonymous Prayer Line: 445-8338/441-4123
