Volunteer Parish Ministry Opportunities

Over the summer, please be thinking about how you might be able to serve our parish in the fall. We are in need of people who can wash the church linens, once or twice a year. If you would like to be captain for one of the weekend masses, or even a sacristan, please let us know. We would also like to recruit more people as greeters, gift bearers, commentators, lectors, and extraordinary ministers of communion. There will be a training session in the fall. Children who have been confirmed can also sign up to become altar servers.

Vocation Corner
Fifteenth Sunday of the Year – B

A Vocation View: In today's First Reading, Amos says he did not choose to be a prophet. God selected him. Maybe God is asking you to reconsider what you are doing and do His work instead.

Prayer: That all those called to serve Christ and His Church in the priesthood and consecrated life will receive the graces and authority of their mission to the praise of God’s glory, we pray to the Lord.

Action: For each one of us, there is only one thing necessary: to fulfill our own destiny, according to God’s will, to be what God wants us to be.
Thomas Merton

July 14, 2024
Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Our readings today remind us to live our lives in total surrender to God’s care.
The Gospel recounts when Jesus instructs His twelve apostles to begin their missionary work two by two. He encouraged them to take very little — a walking stick and sandals.
If you can recall a time you packed for a trip, or even left the house for a day’s travel, you might remember making a list or packing days in advance. We tend to pack so we know we will be comfortable.
If we extend this concept of "comfort" into other areas of our lives, we will most likely find a few instances where we ensure life is comfortable. It could be buying extra food at the grocery store, making sure we have the most updated technology, or even feeling safe in our bank accounts.
It is not bad to have extra food in the pantry or a new phone. And it isn’t bad to save money. These things can be good when used properly.
But what if we are looking to these things for comfort, security or even happiness?
Imagine if Jesus approached you and said, “Go out and do my work, but you can only bring a walking stick and shoes.” Would you be willing to surrender all the rest?
A key component of living out our call as Christian stewards is total surrender. It is trusting in God during our best moments and our hardest. It is looking to Him for security, comfort and happiness.
Reflect on the ways you might be looking for comfort in the things of this world. Tangibly find a way to become independent from that "thing" so that you can become more dependent on God.
