Volunteer Parish Ministry Opportunities

Over the summer, please be thinking about how you might be able to serve our parish in the fall. We are in need of people who can wash the church linens, once or twice a year. If you would like to be captain for one of the weekend masses, or even a sacristan, please let us know. We would also like to recruit more people as greeters, gift bearers, commentators, lectors, and extraordinary ministers of communion. There will be a training session in the fall. Children who have been confirmed can also sign up to become altar servers.

Vocation Corner
Seventeenth Sunday of the Year – B
A Vocation View: Today we are reminded by St Paul that there is one body, one Lord, one faith, one baptism. The challenge before us is to 'bear with one another charitably, in complete selflessness, gentleness and patience.' That is an essential part of our vocation: to lead a life worthy of these attributes. Prayer: That the knowledge of our unity, one body and one spirit in Christ, will heighten each person’s faithfulness to their vocation, and encourage those He is calling to strengthen His bond of peace as priests, deacons and consecrated religious, we pray to the Lord. Action: Legend surrounds the brief life of Saint Wenceslaus I, Duke of Bohemia (907-935), originally venerated because of his martyrdom but most remembered today because of a Christmas carol that celebrates him as a model of generosity. Separating fact from fiction may be difficult after 1,000 years, but your own record of generosity should be easier to tally. Will anyone sing praises of your generosity a millennium from now? A hundred years? Ten minutes after you are gone? If not, what can you do today to start building your own lasting legacy as a disciple of Christ?

July 28, 2024
Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
The servant and the little boy in our readings today are excellent examples for us as Christian stewards. The servant gave the very best of what he had, and the boy gave all that he had, then God did the rest.
A key component of living as a good steward is constantly evaluating our lives, particularly our relationship with God to ensure we are not just scraping by but rather giving God our entire lives.
We should ask ourselves — ‘how am I giving God my time, using my talents, and sharing my treasures?’
We are called to give God adequate time each day. If we don’t plan for this time, likely, He won’t get any. We need to find what works best for us so that God can become a more significant part of our daily lives. We are also called to put our gifts and talents to good use too. The servant and the boy teach us that it is not up to us to decide how our gifts will affect others. God will do that. All we need to do is to give it well.
Lastly, the servant reminds us that we are called to give the first fruits of our treasures. It is easy to give something; it is difficult to give the finest gift. Giving our best requires us to reevaluate our priorities in life.
When we strive to live out our call as Christian stewards by entrusting all that we have been given to the One who graciously gave us these gifts, we will be blessed beyond measure. As we begin a new week, let us spend some time evaluating our relationship with God by asking, ‘what is my very best, and am I giving it to God?’
