Bishop's Annual Appeal :

« Planting Seeds of Hope »

Oct. 26, 2025 – December 31, 2025

Every gift is greatly appreciated!

Doing the little things in life in Christ's name can be a great way for us to take the steps necessary to become a better disciple. St. Thérèse Lisieux once said, “You know well enough that our Lord does not look so much at the greatness of our actions, nor even at their difficulty, but at the love at which we do them.” Please give generously to this year's Bishop's Annual Appeal. There are a couple extra envelopes on the table at the back of the church. If you need help, call the parish office.

This year, our parish is asked to raise $20,244.00. As of Nov. 12, we have received 20 pledges. The amount pledged so far to the Bishop's Annual Appeal by parishioners of our parish is $2,875.00.

More pledges are on their way to Prince Albert this week.

Letter from the bishop

To All the Faithful of the Diocese,
With great joy, I am pleased to announce that Sedale Coronel Rosillo will be ordained to the Transitional Diaconate at 6:00 PM on Monday, December 22 at St. Joseph Parish in Prince Albert.

This will occur during the traditional Filipino novena (Simbang Gabi) before Christmas. A feast will follow in the parish hall. All are welcome to attend.

Please join me in praying for Sedale as he continues to prepare himself for Ordination to the Diaconate and his commitment to a life of service of God's People. Further details will be sent out for Clergy who wish to concelebrate.

In Christ,
✠ Most Rev. Stephen A. Hero
Bishop of Prince Albert

Vocation Corner

Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time – C

A Vocation View: You know that at the end of earth-time, everything will be stubble. Be sure there is a monument to your earth-love in heaven. Listen to Jesus.

Prayer: That prayer, hard work and generous service will prepare many young men and women to answer the Lord's call to follow Him as priests, deacons and in the consecrated life, we pray to the Lord.

Action: May the world of our time . . . be enabled to receive the Good News not from evangelizers who are dejected and discouraged . . . but from ministers of the gospel whose lives glow with fervor, who have first received the joy of Christ. Pope Paul VI, Apostolic Exhortation Evangelii Nuntiandi, no. 1

November 16, 2025
Thirty-third Sunday in Ordinary Time

As we approach the end of the liturgical year, our readings offer a sober reminder that this life is not our aim and that God's justice will triumph in the end. Now is the time to get our priorities in order, putting God above all else as his faithful stewards.

Our Lord brings home the urgency of right priorities in our Gospel passage from Luke, reminding the people around him who were looking at the temple nearby, "All that you see here—the days will come when there will not be left a stone upon another stone that will not be thrown down." Our Lord reminds us that all in this world is passing. We must keep our focus on eternity.

Yet before the eternal bliss of heaven, we should expect to be tried and tested. "Before all this happens, however, they will seize and persecute you, they will hand you over to the synagogues and to prisons and they will have you led before kings and governors because of my name."

Sounds scary. But if you are living a stewardship way of life, there is nothing to fear. You have a plan in place. All you need to do is stick with it. Put our Lord first in your time, with your talents, and through your use of treasure. This way of life is not easy. But Jesus promises it will lead to eternal salvation and the joy of union with Him. "You will be hated by all because of my name, but not a hair on your head will be destroyed. By your perseverance, you will secure your lives."

Onward, Christian stewards, the struggle is worth the joy that awaits!
