

ANNOUNCEMENTS

29th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Oct. 18th & 19th, 2025

1. The Fall Supper is just 2 weeks away, and we are still in need of potatoes, carrots, salads, buns, margarine, pickles, cranberries, coffee, creamer, cool whip, pies and desserts. Please do what you can today to assure us that we will have enough of everything to serve all who come to the supper on Nov. 2nd. We still need more people to cook the turkeys, along with gravy and stuffing. A crew will be at St. Joe's on Saturday, Nov. 1st, at 1:00 pm doing some preparations, so items can be dropped off at St. Joseph's north parking lot side door, or they can be brought to Notre Dame Parish during office hours. On Sunday, Nov. 2nd, there will be no coffee and donuts after the 11:00 am Mass, and the 5:00 pm Mass will be cancelled. Our helpers will be setting up at St. Joe's beginning at 1:00 pm. Tickets are not being sold in advance, and we are not doing take-out meals.
2. It is that time of year again for the youth to dress up as saints or bible characters for the All Saints Party being held on Friday, Oct. 24, at St. Vital Parish. This is open to all youth. It runs from 7:00 pm to 8:30 pm.
3. Jim McLane, from St. Joseph Calasactius Parish will launch his new novel: After Dawn Comes Laughter at the North Battleford Public Library on Wednesday, Oct. 29, 2025, at 7:00 pm. This is the sequel novel to Where Joy is Born in the McBride Family Adventure Series. All are welcome.
4. As promised, our Lottery Ticket Raffle sale is kicking off this weekend. You could be the lucky winner of cash prizes before Christmas. The fundraising committee invites each parishioner to pick up a book of tickets today. If there is no book with your name on it, you can ask for books anyway. Additional books can be signed out for those who would like to sell more.

For 11:00 am Mass only: Everyone is welcome to stay after mass for coffee and donuts and fellowship. New parishioners are welcome.
