

ANNOUNCEMENTS

First Sunday of Advent, Nov. 29th & 30th, 2025

1. The ministries of the Bishop's Annual Appeal continue their work in support of Faith Formation, Family Life, Catholic Family Services, Indigenous ministries, Evangelization and Catechesis. Will you help to keep these ministries strong?
2. Notre Dame Parish has been a strong supporter of Chalice Canda for many years. If you are not familiar with it, please visit chalice.ca. or pick up a catalogue. This year, some of the most needed gifts are being matched by a private donor, up to $100,000, which will double the impact of your gift. If you take a catalogue, please return it when you are finished with it so that someone else can use it. Orders may be placed over the phone or online, as well.
3. Our Parish Advent Reconciliation this year will be on Wednesday, Dec. 10, at 7:00 pm. There will be no Mass, but there will be adoration in the morning from 10:00 to 11:00 am.
4. There are two letters in the entrance from Most Reverend Stephen Hero, administrator of Prince Albert. One is the announcement of his appointment as the new Metropolitan Archbishop of Edmonton, and the other is regarding the updates to the appointments for clergy, deans, senate members, and consultors for the 2025-2026 pastoral year. These letters can also be found on our Facebook page and on the Diocesan website.
5. As you entered the church today, you were handed a book mark from Bishop Stephen which outlines the new pastoral plan for the Diocese of Prince Albert, which is called Cor Novum: A New Heart. This plan was outlined at our Extended Deanery Meetings in the spring of 2025, and more recently at our Diocesan Pastoral Council Event on October 25. On the bookmark, along with the 5 priorities and a prayer, you will find a QR code. This code, when scanned, will take you to the diocesan website where you may read the entire booklet.
6. There is a clear glass Anchor Hocking dish with a lid left over from the Fall Supper. If it belongs to you, please pick it up in St. Bernadette Hall.
7. There are 112 ticket books out there that have not been returned as of yet. We encourage you to keep selling, and then return them as soon as possible. The deadline to return books is Sunday, December 14, and the draws for cash prizes will be on Dec. 21.

For 11:00 am Mass only:

Please join us in Saint Bernadette Hall after mass today for coffee, goodies, and fellowship. New parishioners and visitors are welcome.
